Simply adjust the charging pins manually to correspond to your battery's contacts and plug into the mains or DC car socket to begin charging. Aligning the two charging pins is a bit tricky but the automatic polarity adjustment and battery locking slider ensure the battery is held firmly and charged correctly. Very useful for a variety of flat liion batteries and much better value for money than a host of separate manufactures chargers! I am pleased with my purchase and would recommend it to others. Well done Duracell. Great for transferring photos from device to device easily. In some instances we may also offer a compatible solution from carefully selected brands such as 2Power to compliment our range or to cover models that Duracell do not currently cover. 2Power products are tested to the highest standards and manufactured using high quality components to deliver outstanding performance. Everything you'd expect from Duracell Direct. This may be because our system is unusually busy, or because one of our servers is temporarily offline. Please try again in a few minutes.
